

The selection of elective courses for full-time FEM students in the academic year 2026/2027
(Bachelor in English)

The following schedule will be used to select electives for the upcoming academic year.

First round of subject selection: from April 6rd, 2026 (12:00 o'clock)

Website for selecting courses: is.czu.cz - (specifically Student's Portal > Registration/Enrollment, after clicking on the icon you get to Registrations for both WS and SS).

Students advancing to:	Students choose:
2. year programmes EM, BA, INFOA (BSc.)	one foreign language (must not be the student's native language)
The first round of electives ends April 12th, 2026. The results will be published in the UIS.

The lists of elective courses, including codes, are available in the UIS. Master's students in BAN, EADAN, EMNP, INFOAN, ITBN and GISM do not select courses.

Second round of subject selection: 20. – 26. April 2026

Only students who did not have their chosen course open in the first round are eligible to vote in this round. The lists of unopened courses will be published after the first round is closed (UIS).

Important notices:

It is necessary to select subjects wisely and within the specified time frame. Course changes must be approved by the relevant departments after the semester begins.

In the first round, there is no limit on the number of students per course. Therefore, selecting courses right away after opening the application is unnecessary.
