
Organizing the Czech language examination in the Bachelor Study Programmes at PEF (FEM) in the academic year 2021/2022

Knowledge of the Czech language is a pre-condition for studying in the study programmes taught in Czech. Graduates of the Czech and Slovak secondary schools prove this knowledge by a document showing that they have passed the high school leaving certificate exam in the Czech or Slovak language. Other prospective students demonstrate their knowledge by passing a written exam in the Czech language at level B1, organized by FEM CZU before the entrance exams.

1) Appointment of committees

Committee for the preparation and marking of the Czech language tests

Chair: PhDr. Mgr. Lenka Kučírková, Ph.D – Head of the Department of Languages, FEM

This committee is in charge of the preparation and marking of the Czech language tests. It also performs registration and checks the results.

Examination Committee

The chair and members of this committee are appointed by the Dean. They are in charge of the organization of tests and supervision of applicants sitting for the tests. They carry out registration of applicants and check the documents.

2) Activities of the committees are governed by the rules that have been approved by the FEM management and by the FEM Academic Senate. A detailed timetable of activities will be discussed with the committees by the Vice-Dean for Study and Pedagogical Activities by 31 January 2021 at the latest.

3) Organization and evaluation of the Czech language tests

Prospective students must apply for the examination by themselves. The application must be submitted electronically using the system of e-applications at the address: <http://is.czu.cz/prihlaska>. After logging in select the icon of the Faculty of Economics and Management, then you select the type of study in the Lifelong Learning plus the required date of the Czech language examination can be selected.

A completed application form must include a receipt for a fee of 700 CZK. Both must be registered before the day of the language examination. The applicants will be informed about the specific date (day and time of the exam) through an electronic invitation using the <http://is.czu.cz/prihlaska>. The fee for the language examination is 700 CZK and is non-refundable.

Successful completion of the exam is achieved by obtaining at least 50 % of the possible points.

All communication, including publishing the results of the examination, is conducted in electronic form only.

Proof of successful completion of the Czech language exam must be submitted by applicants during the registration for study.

Ing. Martin Pelikán, Ph.D.

Dean of FEM

30 November 2020