

PREPARATORY CZECH LANGUAGE COURSES

The Centre of International Studies at the Faculty of Economics of the Czech University of Life Sciences Prague provides several types of language courses. They are designed for students from abroad who are interested in studying accredited bachelor and master courses taught in the Czech language:

1. The annual course of Czech language (500 hours) and English (60 hours) - starts in mid September and ends in May of the following year.
2. The six-month Czech language course (350 hours) and English (30 hours) – starts in mid January and ends in May of the following year.

NOTE

The Centre of International Studies provides other preparatory language courses as requested - the annual and half-yearly courses range from 380 to 560 or 600 hours. These courses start and take place during the entire academic year and are based on the requirements of individual contract partners who order these courses from FEM CULS.

Students are prepared for sitting for the entrance exams in the chosen field of study and for coping with the follow-up study in the given language.

Czech language courses are provided in accordance with Section 64, Paragraph 1, Letter b, Act. No. 326/1999 Coll., - participation in the language and specialized preparation to study in an accredited programme of the Czech University of Life Sciences Prague: Economics and Management, organized by a public university under the Act. No. 111/1998 Coll.
