
Organizing Admission Proceedings for the Study in the Bachelor Study Programmes at FEM in academic year 2021/2022 – conditions for study registration and from exemption the entrance examination

In accordance with the regulation Section 49 and 50 Act No. 111/98 Coll., on tertiary institutions and on changes as amended and updated other legislations concerning admission to study in bachelor and master study programmes as well as other follow-up study regulations I declare the conditions for the exemption for entrance examination and registration to study in Bc programmes as follows: Provoz a ekonomika, Podnikání a administrativa, Economics and Management, Veřejná správa a regionální rozvoj, Hospodářská a kulturní studia, Informatika, Informatics, Systémové inženýrství for the academic year 2021/2022 at FEM CZU Prague.

The dean will exempt students from the entrance examination if they fulfil the following conditions:

- The applicants submitted within the regular deadline a completely filled-out electronic application form for the relevant study programme and paid the fee for the entrance examination.
- The applicants will register for their study during the enrolment which will take place from 7 to 8 July 2021 or in the alternative term 1 September 2021. Alternative registration is permitted only upon written request.

The applicants will be registered for their studies, if they:

- Present a valid ID card (citizen's ID card or a passport)
- Properly completed their studies of high school education with a High School Leaving Certificate (Maturita). Applicants must submit their High School Leaving Certificate (Maturita) on the day of their registration (enrolment) for study. If the applicant does not have his/her High School Leaving Certificate (Maturita) by the time of enrolment, in view of the current situation he/she may request in writing the postponement of enrolment. Applicants who had graduated at a high school abroad must also supply a document on nostrification of their High School Leaving Certificate at the day of their registration to the study.
- For the programmes which require study fee the applicants must supply a study fee receipt (this applies to the study programmes of Informatics, Economics and Management)
- Document of passing the Czech language exam organized by FEM CZU in Prague - Knowledge of the Czech language is a precondition for enrolling in study programmes taught in Czech. Graduates of the Czech and Slovak secondary schools demonstrate their knowledge of Czech by a document, which proves that they have passed the high school graduation exam in the Czech or Slovak language, other applicants have to pass the Czech language exam, which takes place during the admission procedure at the FEM CZU.

After the registration the students will receive a written confirmation of study.

In Prague, 11 May 2021

Ing. Martin Pelikán, Ph.D.

dean